Glossary of Terms

A

Acceleration clause
Stipulation in a mortgage agreement that allows the lender to demand immediate payment of the entire loan balance if any scheduled payment is missed.

Active Listing
Property is FOR SALE & available for showing with NO accepted offers.

Active Pending-Call
An offer has been accepted, property available for showings and back up offers are being accepted, please call.

Active Pending-Loan
An offer has been accepted but is contingent upon financing. Property available for showings and back up offers are being accepted, please call.

Active Pending-House
An offer has been accepted but is contingent upon the sale of another property. Property available for showings and back up offers are being accepted, please call.

Active Pending-Short Sale
An offer has been accepted from the owner, but is awaiting the lienholder’s approval. Property is available for showings and back up offers are being accepted, please call. If the offer has been accepted by both the owner and the financial institution, but still available for showings the status can be changed to another Active Pending status such as –Call, -Loan or –House.

Adjustable rate mortgage (ARM)
Mortgage loan on which the interest rate falls and rises with changes in prevailing rates. The mortgage rate is tied to a selected index and may be adjusted annually. Also called a variable rate mortgage.

Agent
Person authorized to act by and on behalf of another.

Air rights
Right to occupy and use the open space above a parcel of land or property, such as in the leasing of air space over existing buildings or highways.

Amortize
Pay a debt in monthly or other periodic installments until the total amount, along with the interest, if any, is paid.
Annual percentage rate (APR)
Combines the interest rate with other loan costs, such as points and loan fees, into a single figure that shows the true annual cost of borrowing.

Appraisal
A formal estimate of property value conducted by a professional qualified to make such an opinion.

Appreciation
Increase in property value or worth due to economic or related factors; the opposite of depreciation.

As is
Said of property offered for sale in its present condition with no guarantees as to quality and no promise of repair or fix-up by the seller; property is purchased in exactly the condition in which it is found.

Assessed value
A value placed on a property by an agency of the government for taxation and other purposes.

Assessment
Tax or charge levied on property by a taxing authority to pay for local improvements such as sidewalks, streets, and sewers.

Assumption of mortgage
Taking title to property that has an existing mortgage, and being personally liable for its payment as a condition of the sale.

Balloon loan
Mortgage loan in which a larger final payment becomes due because the loan amount was not fully amortized.

Binder
Short purchase contract used in some areas to secure a real estate transaction until a more formal contract can be signed at a later date; usually accompanied by an earnest money deposit.

Blanket mortgage
Single mortgage that covers more than one real property, i.e. – a house plus the vacant lot next door.

Blockbusting
Illegal practice of creating panic selling in a neighborhood for financial gain. Typically exploits racial and religious bias to get homeowners to sell low so the properties can be resold at a markup.

Breach of contract
When one party fails to live up to the terms and conditions of a contract, without a valid, legal excuse.

Broker
Licensed individual who acts independently in conducting a real estate brokerage business; also a person who buys and sells for another for a commission.
Brokerage
Business of a broker. Also, the amount charged for a broker’s service.

Builder’s warranty
Written statement by a builder assuring that a dwelling was completed according to a stipulated set of standards. It protects the buyer from any latent defects.

Building codes
Minimum construction standards set by state or local laws for public safety and health. Includes the design, construction, repair, and quality of building materials, as well as the use and occupancy of structures.

Business Opportunity Listing
A business which may include personal property and might, but does not necessarily include real property.

Buy-down
Cash payment to a lender to reduce the interest rate a borrower must pay on a new mortgage loan. Commonly used by builders to sell new homes.

Buyer’s market
Describes an excess supply of homes for sale, in which there are few buyers and many sellers. In such a market, the buyer can typically negotiate more favorable prices and terms.

Bylaws
The written rules by which an organization is governed. Bylaws guide the board in conducting business.

Closing costs
Expenses over and above the price of property that must be paid by buyers and sellers before title is transferred. Also known as settlement costs.

Closing statement
Written account of all expenses, adjustments, and disbursements received by the buyer and seller when completing a real estate transaction.

Cloud on title
Defect in the title that impairs the owner’s ability to market the property. This might be a lien, claim, judgment, or encumbrance.

Collateral
Something of value given or pledged to a lender as security for the repayment of a loan.

Commercial/Industrial Listing
Includes any office, retail, industrial property. Commercially zoned vacant land must be entered in the Vacant Land category.
Commingle funds
Mixing of a clients’ funds, or escrow, with an agent’s personal funds in an account; considered to be grounds for the suspension or revocation of the broker’s real estate license.

Commission
Payment, or brokerage fees, given by the seller of a property to a real estate agent for services rendered. Usually paid at the closing.

Common elements
Parts of a condominium, cooperative, or private home association shared by all residents, so that each unit owner holds an undivided interest in, for example, the hallways, parking facilities, or swimming pool.

Comparables
Properties similar to a specific piece of property that are used to help estimate the value of that property.

Competitive market analysis
A method of determining home value that looks at recent home sales, homes presently on the market, and homes that were listed but did not sell.

Condominium
Type of housing where buyers own their units outright, plus an undivided share, or joint ownership, in the common elements of the building or community.

Consideration
Something of value, usually money, given to induce another to enter into a contract.

Construction loan
Type of loan where money is doled out as construction takes place; borrower must obtain a permanent long-term mortgage from another source to repay the construction loan. Also called an interim loan.

Contingency
A provision in a contract that keeps it from becoming binding until a certain event happens. A satisfactory inspection report might be a contingency.

Contract
A legally enforceable agreement between two or more parties. To be valid, a real estate contract must be dated, in writing, include a consideration, have a description of the property, the place and date of delivery of the deed, and spell out all terms and conditions that were mutually agreed upon. It also must be executed (signed) by the buyer and seller.

Contractor
One who contracts to do something for another. For example, in construction, a specialist who enters into a formal construction contract to build a real estate structure or handle renovations, improvements, and additions to an existing structure.

Conventional loan
Real estate loan that is not insured by the FHA or guaranteed by the VA.
Convey
To transfer property from one person to another.

Conveyance
Document used to transfer title. (A deed is a conveyance)

Cooperative
Land and building owned or leased by a corporation which in turn leases space to its shareholders, who are also part owners of the building and have a proprietary lease. In lieu of rent, they each pay a proportionate monthly or quarterly fixed rate to cover operating costs, mortgage payments, taxes, etc.

Counteroffer
An offer made in response to an earlier, unacceptable one; it terminates the original offer.

Credit report
A past history of debt repayment used by creditors as an indicator of future readiness to responsibly repay debt.

D

Deed
Written document that when executed and delivered conveys title to real property.

Deed of trust
Document resembling a mortgage that conveys legal title to a neutral third party as security for a debt. Also called a trust deed or deed in trust.

Deed restrictions
Provisions placed in deeds to control how future landowners may or may not use the property. Also called deed covenants.

Default
Breach of a contract or failure to meet a legal obligation. Nonpayment of a mortgage beyond a certain number of payments is considered a default.

Deficiency judgment
Judgment issued against a borrower when the sale of foreclosed property does not bring in enough to pay the balance owed on the mortgage.

Delinquent loan
One where the borrower is behind, or late, in payments.

Depreciation
Gradual decline on paper in market value of real estate, especially because of age, obsolescence, wear and tear, or economic conditions.

Discount broker
Full-service broker who charges less than the prevailing commission rates in his or her community.
Discount points
Added loan fee charged by a lender to make the yield on a lower-than-market-value loan competitive with higher-interest loans.

Down payment
Initial cash investment made as evidence of good faith when purchasing real estate. It is usually a percentage of the sale price.

Due-on-sale
Clause in a note or mortgage giving the lender the right to call the entire loan balance due if the property is sold or otherwise conveyed.

Earnest money deposit
Money that accompanies an offer to purchase as evidence of good faith. It is almost always a personal check, certified check, or money order rather than cash.

Easement
Limited right to cross or use for some specified purpose the property of another. It may be permanent or temporary. Water, sewage, and utility suppliers frequently hold an easement across private property.

Eminent domain
The right or power of government to acquire private property for public use without the consent of the owner, provided fair compensation is provided.

Encroachment
A building or other improvement that extends beyond its boundary and intrudes upon the property of another.

Encumbrance
Any impediment to a clear title. It can be a claim, lien, zoning restriction, or other legal right or interest in land that diminishes its value. The report of the title search usually shows all encumbrances.

Equity
Value an owner has in a piece of property less the debt against it. For example, if the market value of a house is $150,000 and the owner has paid off $10,000 of a $75,000 mortgage, the owner has $85,000 equity.

Equity build-up
Term used to refer to the increase of one’s equity in a property due to mortgage balance reduction and price appreciation.

Escheat
Reversion of property to the state when the owner dies without leaving a will and has no heirs to whom the property may pass.
Escrow
Money or documents held by a third party until specific conditions of an agreement or contract are fulfilled.

Escrow account
Special bank account into which escrow monies are deposited and from which they are disbursed. Lawyers and real estate brokers maintain escrow accounts to hold money in trust for others.

Escrow company
A firm that specializes in handling the closing of a transaction.

Exclusive Agency Listings
The exclusive agency listing authorizes the listing broker, as exclusive agent, to offer cooperation and compensation on blanket unilateral basis, but also reserves to the seller the general right to sell the property on an unlimited or restrictive basis. Exclusive agency listings shall be clearly distinguished with in the MLS.

Exclusive Right to Sell Listings
Exclusive Right to Sell is the conventional form of listing submitted to the Multiple Listing Service in that the seller authorizes the listing broker to cooperate with and to compensate other brokers.

Exclusive Right to Sell with Reservations
NNRMLS will accept exclusive right to sell listings in which the seller reserves the right to sell to certain named individuals. Such listings shall be clearly distinguished from the Exclusive Right to Sell Listing by designation of listing type upon listing input and a notation in the remarks section of the listing. The listing will be accompanied by a statement signed by the seller identifying the named individuals. The listing agent must disclose the named individuals at the request of another member.

F

Fair market value
See market value.

Fannie Mae
Common name for the Federal National Mortgage Association, which buys and sells loans in the secondary mortgage market.

Farm and Ranch Listing
Any property, regardless of residence, that has a minimum of 20 acre feet of water rights can be defined as Farm and Ranch.

First mortgage
Mortgage on a property that is superior to any other. It is the first to be paid in the event of foreclosure.

Fixtures
Any personal property that has been permanently attached to real property and therefore included in the transfer of real estate. The kitchen sink is a fixture.
Foreclosure
Legal action instigated by a lender to end all ownership rights when mortgage payments have not been kept up.

Freddie Mac
Common name for the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, which buys and sells loans in the secondary mortgage market.

Fee simple
Ownership of real property that is to be used and/or sold at the owner’s discretion.

FHA
Acronym for Federal Housing Authority, an agency created within the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) that insures mortgages on residential property, with down payment requirements usually lower than prevailing ones.

Fiduciary
Person acting in a position of trust, responsibility and confidence for another, such a broker for his client.

G

Gentrification
Process whereby private or government-sponsored development of certain aging neighborhoods results in the displacement of low- or moderate-income families by the more affluent and leads to an increase in property values.

Grace period
Specified period of time to meet a commitment after it becomes due, without penalty or default. For example, most lenders allow a two-week grace period after the due date of the mortgage payment before a late fee is imposed.

Graduated payment mortgage
Mortgage loan for which the initial payments are low but increase over the life of the loan.

Grantee
Person named in a deed who acquires ownership of real estate; the buyer.

Grantor
Person named in a deed who conveys ownership of real estate; the seller.

H

Highest and best use
Use of land that is most logical and productive. Refers to the greatest income it can bring the owner, as well as factors such as aesthetics and benefits to the surrounding community.

Historic structures
Buildings of historical or architectural significance, perhaps landmarks, that are designated by federal, state, or local historical commissions.
Homeowner’s insurance policy
Packaged insurance policy for homeowners and tenants that cover property damage and public liability, such as fire, theft, and personal liability.

Homestead protection
State and federal laws that protect against the forced sale of a person’s home by creditors. Also, upon the death of one spouse, provides the other with a home for life.

Housing codes
Local regulations that set minimum conditions under which dwellings are considered fit for human habitation. It guards against unsanitary or unsafe conditions and overcrowding.

HUD
Acronym for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, an agency from which almost all of the federal government’s housing programs flow.

Improvement
Any form of land development or man-made addition, such as the erection of a building or fence, to enhance the value of private property; also an improvement to publicly owned structures, such as a sewer or road.

Inspection
The act of physically examining and testing a piece of property to ascertain certain information.

Installment payment
Periodic payment, usually monthly, of interest and principal on a mortgage or other loan.

Interest
A fee paid for the use of money; also a share or right in something.

Interim financing
Short-term loan usually made during the construction phase of a building project or until a permanent, long-term loan can be obtained. Also called a construction loan.

Joint tenancy
Property owned by two or more persons with equal and undivided interest and ownership and the right of survivorship. If one owner dies, the property automatically passes to the others.

Judgment
Court decree stating that one person is indebted to another. Also specifies the amount of the debt.

Junior mortgage
Any mortgage, such a second or third mortgage on a property, which is subordinate to the first one in priority.
K

L

Lease
Contract that conveys the right to use property for a period of time in return for a consideration, usually rent, paid to the property owner.

Lease-only listing
Rent or lease of any commercial or business property.

Lease-purchase option
Opportunity to purchase a piece of property by renting for a specified period, with the provision that the lessee may choose to buy after or during the leasing period at a predetermined sale price.

Lessee
Someone who rents under a lease; the tenant.

Lessor
Someone who rents to another party through a lease; the landlord.

License
A privilege or right granted to a person by a state to operate as a real estate broker or salesperson.

Lien
A debt on a property which encumbers it until the obligation is paid; a mortgage, back taxes, or another claim.

Listing
Contract used for hiring a real estate agent to sell a piece of property. Also a piece of property that is for sale.

Listing content
Information about a property as entered into the MLS, includes, but is not limited to, photographs, images, graphics, audio and video recordings, virtual tours, drawings, descriptions, remarks, narratives, pricing information, and other details or information related to listed property.

Loan origination fee
Paid by the borrower to get a loan; it covers expenses incurred by the lender, such as the cost of the appraisal, credit report, title search, etc.

Loan servicing
Task of collecting monthly payments, handling insurance and tax impounds, delinquencies, early payoffs, and mortgage releases.

Loan-to-value ratio
Relationship of a mortgage loan to the appraised value of a piece of property. Usually expressed to the buyer in terms of how much the lender will lend, i.e. – 75 percent financing.
Maintenance fees
Paid by a condominium unit owner to the owners’ association for upkeep of the common areas.

Management Agreement
The management agreement is a contract between the owner of the property and the agent who agrees to the management of the property.

Market price
Actual selling price of a property.

Market value
Generally accepted as the highest price that a ready, willing, and able buyer will pay and the lowest price a ready, willing, and able seller will accept for a property.

Marketable title
Good and clear title that is free from reasonable doubt as to who the owner is.

Master deed
Document that converts a parcel of land into a condominium subdivision.

Master plan
Long-range, comprehensive guide for the physical growth or development of a community.

Maturity date
Date on which principal and interest on a mortgage or other loan must be paid in full.

Mortgage
Legal document that creates a lien on property; it secures the repayment of a loan.

Mortgage broker
Individual or company that brings borrowers and lenders together; a loan broker.

Mortgage company or mortgage banker
Financial intermediary that offers mortgages to borrowers, and then resells them to various lending institutions, government agencies, or private investors.

Mortgagee
Party or institution that lends money; the creditor.

Mortgagor
Party or person that borrows money, giving a lien on the property as security for the loan; the borrower.

Multiple Listing Service
A facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so participants may better serve their clients and customers and the public; a means by which authorized participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other participants (acting as subagents, buyer agents, or in other agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); a means of enhancing cooperation among participants; a means by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; a means by which participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases.

The MLS is the trading platform for real estate within its geographic area allowing the widest possible marketing of properties.

Multi-family Listing
Two or more legal (conforming) residential units on a single parcel. This does not include single ownership of multiple condos in a project or single ownership of single family residences on separate parcels.

N

Net lease
Lease requiring the tenant to pay all the costs incurred in maintaining a property, including taxes, insurance, repairs, and other expenses normally required of the owner.

Nonconforming use
Use of property that is permitted to continue after a zoning ordinance prohibiting it has been passed.

O

Offer
Oral or written proposal to buy a piece of property at a specified price.

Open Listing
A contractual agreement under which the listing broker acts as the agent or as the legally recognized non-agency representative of the seller(s), and the seller(s) agrees to pay a commission to the listing broker only if the property is sold through the efforts of the listing broker. This form of Listing Agreement is not accepted in the Northern Nevada Regional MLS.

Option
The exclusive right to purchase or lease a property at a predetermined price or rent at some future time.

Origination fee
A charge by the lender for granting and processing a new mortgage loan.

P

Pending-No Show
This is a true Pending status with no contingencies. Pending-No Show indicates that an offer has been accepted by the owner the property is no longer available to showings. When the property is market Pending-No Show, it is considered to be Off Market and will not expire. When reporting a property as Pending-No Show, the contract date field is required. The Proposed Closing Date field will become available, but is not required.

PITI
Acronym for “principal, interest, taxes, and insurance”. Frequently used to describe a loan payment that combines all four items.

Planned Unit Development (PUD)
Individually owned houses with community ownership of common areas, such as swimming pools and tennis courts.

Plat
Map or survey showing the location and boundaries of individual properties and how they have been subdivided into lots and blocks.

Point
Fee charged by a lender to get additional revenue over the interest rate. A point is equal to one percent of the loan amount.

Prepayment penalty
Fee charged by the lender when a borrower repays the loan early.

Principal
The amount of money borrowed; the amount of money still owed.

Private mortgage insurance (PMI)
Required by most lenders for conventional loans with a down payment of less than 20 percent. Insurance is paid by the borrower and guarantees the lender will not lose money if the borrower defaults.

Promissory note
A written promise to repay a debt on demand or at a stated time in the future.

Property tax
Assessment levied by city and county governments on real and personal property to generate the bulk of their operating revenues to pay for such public services as schools, libraries, and roads.

Qualification
Act of determining a potential buyer’s needs, abilities, and urgency to buy and matching these with available properties.

Quit-claim deed
A conveyance by which the grantor transfers whatever interest he or she has in the real estate without warranties or obligations.
Real estate
The land itself and everything extending below and above it, including all things permanently attached, whether by nature or by man.

Real estate broker
Individual who has passed a state broker’s test and represents others in realty transactions. Anyone having his or her own office must be a broker.

Real estate investment trust (REIT)
Entity that allows a very large number of investors to pool their money in the purchase of real estate, but as passive investors. The investors do not buy directly. Instead, they purchase shares in the REIT that owns the real estate investment.

Real estate salesperson
Person who has passed a state examination for that position, and must work under the supervision of a broker.

Real estate tax
See property tax.

Real property
Land and buildings and anything permanently attached to them.

REALTOR®
REALTOR® is a federally registered collective membership mark which identifies a real estate professional who is member of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® and subscribes to its strict Code of Ethics.

Recording
Entering or recording documents affecting or conveying interests in real estate in the recorder’s office; until recorded a deed or mortgage generally is not effective against subsequent purchases or mortgage liens.

Redlining
Practice of refusing to make loans in certain neighborhoods. Also applies to insurance companies that refuse to offer policies in certain neighborhoods.

Refinance
To pay off one loan by taking out another on the same property.

Release of mortgage
Certificate from the lender stating that the loan has been repaid.

Rent control
Government-imposed restrictions on the amount of rent a property owner can charge.
Rental Listing
Rent or lease of any residential property.

Replacement cost
The cost at today’s prices and using today’s construction methods, of building an improvement having the same usefulness as the one being appraised.

Report of title
Document required before title insurance can be issued. It states the name of the owner, a legal description of the property, and the status of taxes, liens, and anything else that might affect the marketability of the title.

Reserve account
An account for money collected each month by a lender to pay for property taxes and property insurance as they come due.

Residential Listing
Single family residence, (stick built, manufactured or modular) without regard to owner occupancy or rental status. Attached or detached. A residential listing may include a single family residence with an additional unit such as in-law, guest or staff quarters, separate and on the same parcel. All Residential listings entered into the MLS must include real property except Condominium/Townhomes within Cooperative Complex. (10/20/10)

Restrictive covenants
Clauses placed in a deed to restrict the full use of the property by controlling how future landowners may or may not use the property; also used in leases.

Right of first refusal
A person’s right to have the first opportunity to either lease or purchase real property.

Right of survivorship
A feature of joint tenancy giving the surviving joint tenants the rights, title and interests of the deceased joint tenant. Right of survivorship is the basic difference between buying property as joint tenants and as tenants in common.

Sales contract
Contract that contains the terms of the agreement between the buyer and seller for the sale of a particular parcel or parcels of real estate.

Second mortgage
Lien on property that is subordinate to a first mortgage. In the event of default, the second mortgage is repaid after the first. Also called a junior mortgage, and in some circumstances a home equity loan.

Secondary mortgage market
Market for the purchase and sale of existing mortgages, designed to provide greater liquidity for mortgages; plays an important role in getting money from those who want to lend to those who want to borrow.
Seller’s market
A market with few sellers and many buyers.

Semi-detached
One structure containing two dwelling units separated vertically by a common wall.

Settlement
The day on which title is conveyed.

Settlement costs
See Closing costs.

Special assessment
A special tax imposed on specific parcels of real estate that will benefit from a proposed public improvement, such as a street or sewer.

Steering
The illegal practice of directing potential home buyers to or away from certain neighborhoods either to maintain or to change the character of an area, or to create a speculative situation.

Subdivision
A tract of land divided by the owner into smaller lots for home sites or other use.

Subletting
The leasing of premises by a lessee to a third party for part of the lessee’s remaining term.

Survey
An exact measurement of the size and boundaries of a piece of land by civil engineers or surveyors.

Tax sale
A court-ordered sale of real property to raise money to cover delinquent taxes.

Tax shelter
A realty investment that produces income-tax deductions for its owner.

Temporarily off-market
Property is temporarily not available for showings. The Seller has directed that the listing contract has not been withdrawn or expired.

Tenancy by the entirety
A form of joint ownership reserved for married persons; right of survivorship exists and neither spouse has a disposable interest during the lifetime of the other.

Tenants in common
Style of ownership in which two or more persons purchase a property jointly, but with no right of survivorship and separate undivided interests. They are free to will their share to anyone they choose, a principal difference between this form of ownership and joint tenancy.

Time-sharing
Part ownership of a property coupled with a right to exclusive use of it for a specified number of days per year.

Title
Actual ownership; the right of possession; also the evidence of ownership such as a deed or bill of sale.

Title insurance
An insurance policy that protects against any losses incurred because of defects in the title not listed in the title report or abstract.

Title report
A statement of the current condition of title for a parcel of land.

Title search
A professional examination of public records to determine the chain of ownership of a particular piece of property and to note any liens, encumbrances, easements, restrictions, or other factors that might affect the title.

Townhouse
Usually a two- or three-story dwelling with shared walls, or a living unit operating under the condominium or townhouse form of ownership.

Trust deed
A document used in place of a mortgage in certain states; a third-party trustee, not the lender, holds the title to the property until the loan is paid out or defaulted. Also called a deed of trust.

Trustee
One who as an agent for others handles money or holds title to their land. At NNRMLS, the governing body is referred to as the Board of Trustees. Trustee is the term used to describe the volunteer leaders of the Northern Nevada Regional MLS.

Tax basis
The price paid for a property plus certain costs and expenses, such as closing costs, legal counsel, and a commission paid to help find the property.

Tax credit
An allowed deduction that can be subtracted from your income tax. If you are entitled to a $1,500 credit, and your income tax would otherwise be $10,000, the credit would reduce the tax due to $8,500.

Tax rate
The rate at which real property is taxed in a tax district or county. For example, in a certain county, real property may be taxed at a rate of 55 mills (or 0.055) per dollar of assessed valuation.
Undivided interest
Ownership by two or more persons that gives each the right to use the entire property.

Urban renewal
The acquisition of run-down city areas for purposes of redevelopment.

Useful life
The period of time over which a commercial property can be depreciated for federal income-tax purposes. Also known as economic life.

Usury
Charging a higher rate of interest on a loan than is legally allowed.

Vacant lot Listing
Land without any dwelling units. This may include parcels that have obsolete structures without value.

Valid contract
One that meets all requirements of law, is binding upon its parties, and is enforceable in a court of law.

Valuation
Estimated or determined value.

Value
Market value or present worth. To have value, a property must have utility, scarcity, effective demand, and transferability.

Variable rate mortgage
See adjustable rate mortgage.

Variance
A permit granted as an exception to a zoning ordinance that allows a property owner to meet certain specified needs.

VA loan
Veterans Administration-backed mortgage. The VA, a federal agency, operates a loan guarantee program for honorably discharged veterans and widows of veterans who died of a service-related injury. Mortgages call for low or no down payment. Sometimes referred to as GI loan.

Warranty deed
A deed in which the grantor guarantees that he or she is giving the grantee good title free of encumbrances. Considered to be the best deed a grantee can receive.
Withdrawn
Listing contract has been cancelled by both the owner and the listing broker.

Write-off
Depreciation or amortization an owner takes on a commercial property.

XYZ

Yield
What an investment or property will return; the profit or income.

Zoning
Procedure that classifies real property for a number of different uses: residential, commercial, industrial, etc. in accordance with a land-use plan.